Structure of the Text100 Leviticus 18:6-29 has a very simple structure and message. Its intent is to define the boundaries of godly human sexual relationships. There are three of them, which I call the inner, middle, and outer boundaries of godly sexuality. Verses 6 through 18 define the “inner boundary,” prohibiting sexual relationships with close relatives.

Our vision describes who we want to be. This is how we desire the church to move. The church is a body of people daily engaging God through time with him and then interacting with the world. This happens when we gather together for worship, study, and prayer and also when we move through the week at work, school, play, and in our neighborhoods.
